ENCLOSURES (NO. &amp; TYPE)

REMARKS

25X1

1. On 2 August 1953, [ ] from a credible resident that large buildings were under construction in the Tauer Forest, east of the Frankfurt/Oder-Peitz railroad line. The construction site extended as far as Peitz-east. A spur track connected the construction site with the Tauer freight train stop. A narrow-gauge field railway extended as far as Peitz-east. Construction work was done in three shifts [ ] 25X1
2. During the night on 9 August, T-43 tanks [ ] 25X1
3. On 10 August, [ ] a combined-arms unit, including infantry, tanks, engineers and artillery, at an exercise which extended from the Berka-Craula area to the Melborn-Saettelstedt-Weingarten-Haina area. The exercise involved 14 to 15 T-34 tanks, [ ] 25X1
25 to 30 SU-100 guns [ ] 4 SU-76 guns, 10 to 12 amphibious vehicles, [ ] 10 to 15 x 82-mm mortars, and 55 to 60 x 57-mm AT guns or 76-mm field guns. On 14 August, a shipment of 24 pontoons, 5 amphibious vehicles [ ] 25X1 engineer equipment, and large quantities of boards, beams and logs were detrained at the Eisenach freight station. The detrained unit subsequently left toward the Kindel troop training grounds. [ ] 25X1

1. [ ] Comment. The following military installations are known in the wooded area north of Peitz: the new barracks installations in the Schoenhoehe-Teerofen area, which belong to the new Forst Tauer training area; and the barracks installations north-northeast of Drachhausen. [ ] 25X1
[ ] refers to the installations in the training area; however, an extension as far as Peitz-east does not appear credible. [ ] 25X1
2. [ ] Comment. On 8 and 9 August, the trains [ ] 25X1
